

Psalm 26 at a Glance

Walk Before Me · The Path of Integrity

The Seven Movements

	Verse by verse	Emmaus Road	Passage
I	The Appeal	Covenant Ground	Psalm 26:1-3
II	The Refusal	The Prayer Beneath	Psalm 26:4-5
III	The Ritual	The Walk and The Trust	Psalm 26:6-7
IV	The Affection	The Door Opened	Psalm 26:8
V	The Petition	The Petition	Psalm 26:9-10
VI	The Resolve	The Resolve	Psalm 26:11
VII	The Stand	The Even Place	Psalm 26:12

Two naming schemes are in use and neither has been declared canonical. Both are printed so the table can follow either.

The Questions

	Carry into the week
I	Does the walk begin with our strength, or His name?
II	Is integrity a claim of sinlessness, or a plea for preservation?
III	Which holds the man: the walk, or the trust?
IV	Do we open the inner rooms to the One we trust?
V	Where does our integrity meet His mercy?
VI	What does a resolve born of dependence look like in our week?
VII	When does private integrity become public praise?

Words

Script	Transliteration	Meaning
תָּם	Tom	Integrity; completeness; uprightness
מִישָׁרִים	Meshar	Equity; level path; uprightness
πύρωσον	Pyroson	Divine refinement; test by fire

Strong's numbers are not printed here. They are pending concordance check and a wrong number on a reference card outlives the card.

Guards

- Integrity is not sinlessness
- God knows hearts, He does not read them
- God proves, He does not tempt with evil
- Remez requires New Testament warrant

The Order We Read In

Torah, then the Prophets, then the Writings, then the Fulfillment in Christ. Luke 24:27, 44. Root every claim in the Tanakh first, and test it before you build on it (Acts 17:11).

The Instrument Is Not the Teacher

The Holy Spirit teaches (John 14:26). This card, the handout, the guide and the app are instruments. When an instrument starts being trusted as a teacher, it has become a Nehushtan, and Hezekiah broke that in pieces (2 Kings 18:4).
